

Introducing the AAPoly Education Email Account

All AAPoly students are offered education Google accounts (.edu.au) that include Gmail, Google Drive with unlimited storage capacity and give you access to all Google apps.

Other Benefits of your Education Email

Microsoft Office

Microsoft offers a wide variety of software for free and huge discounts to those with Edu email addresses on many products for Students and Teachers. You can easily download Office 365 for Students for free.

OneDrive

When you sign up for Microsoft Office 365 using your .edu email account, you get 1 TB of OneDrive storage for free. This is definitely one of the best offers for students who sign up using their university provided email account. 1 TB of OneDrive storage can be used for storing documents, power point slides, excel sheets, images, and much more.

Dell

Dell has also offered a lot of great discounts on its products for students.

Apple

You will help yourself saving a lot of money by using the .EDU email address to purchase products from Apple. There are chances to save up to $200 on Apple computers. Apple has its own Education store that is accessible via the Apple Online Store. Here, you can get decent discounts on some of Apple's hardware, including Macs and iPads. Not every product is eligible for a discount, but some great products are.

GitHub

GitHub Student Developer Pack

The first and biggest benefit of having a .EDU email address is the GitHub Student Developer Pack, the best free developer tools, and services for students. This student pack comes with 12 great offers and free services that may be useful to you, such as a $15 Amazon AWS coupon, a $50 Digital Ocean coupon and much more.

Amazon Student Pack

When you use a .EDU email account and sign up for Amazon Student account – you will be able to use Amazon Prime for free for six months.

Autodesk

Autodesk provides a very large number of free software licenses for students that are extremely beneficial. You will have to register on their website using your .edu email account and then download the free software and licenses.

Spotify

Spotify is an online music and video streaming service in the US. You can grab a 50% discount on the Premium plan for students that will cost you just $4.99 per month.
